

M

You are cordially invited to attend a Reunion of the Theological Class of the Farmers' Word Sunday School, to be held at the Amusement Hall, Friday evening, April 25, 1908. Dancing at 8.00, and Banquet at 10 o'clock.

Committees

Arrangements—J. B. Stewart, John G. Peart, Ed. McLelland

Refreshments—J. B. Stewart, Ada Smith, Mary Gogg

Decorations—Ed. McLelland, Edwin Winder, J. B. Stewart Jr.

Finance—J. B. Peart, Chester Reese, Harry Self

(See Program on other side)

Program

1. Address of Welcome..... J. B. Stewart
2. Toast, "How Can I Prepare Myself to be the Ideal of a Suffragette?"..... Campbell M. Brown
3. Toast, "Advantages of Woman's Suffrage"..... Amy Sandberg
4. Toast, "Our Class"..... A. G. Smith
5. Song, "Let Us All Speak Kind Words to Each Other"..... Julia Barton and Class
6. "Our Theological Family" (Poem)..... Abby Barton
7. Witticisms..... Lisle Goodland
8. Toast, "What the Early Bird Catches"..... Grant Fox
9. Rainy Day Stories..... E. C. Skidmore
10. Toast, "What We Ought to Do, and What We Really Do"..... A. K. Chatfield
11. Toast, "Some Recipes for 'Self-Made' Men"..... Hathe Tipton
12. Toast, "A Sure Cure for the Blues"..... Edwin Winder
13. Toast, "Advice to Married Men"..... Ed. McLelland
14. Toast, "To Our Prospective Missionaries"..... Mary Riches
15. Toast, "Little Things Worth While"..... Julia Erickson
16. Song, "Our Good Old Sunday School" (Tune, "Auld Lang Syne")..... Theological Class